ranging over canon and medieval roman law down to the 1804 code civil this work includes twenty three articles on the history of law on the subject of the child now that the evolution of behaviour and biological technology has led lawyers to fundamentally reconsider the laws concerning human reproduction this work is especially welcome these articles deal mainly with marriage and procreation with natural and legal filiation legitimation and the child as a person

the question these articles seek to respond to in this fifth collection by jean gaudemet to be published by variorum is how the intellectual elite of the medieval church perceived the institutions among which they lived how they portrayed them and how they sought to influence them whether dealing with the papacy and its place in the church and the world with the role of the people in government or with the position of the individual in society he would argue that this is the essential question in their response this elite drew on the bible and custom on roman law and papal letters in order that the law could encompass all human experience to achieve this these jurists needed to create categories and work out principles hence the recourse to theology and the necessity for a logical structure a systematization ce volume réunit dix sept études parues dans diverses revues ou recueils de mélanges entre 1988 et 1992 toutes concernent la doctrine canonique médiévale telle qu'elle s'exprime principalement du viè au xiiiè siècle À propos des institutions de l'église et de ses relations avec la société séculière comment l'élite intellectuelle des hommes de l'église médiévale a-t-elle perçu les institutions au milieu desquelles elle vivait quelle image a-t-elle voulu en donner dans quelle voie espérait-elle les orienter qu'il s'agisse de la papauté de sa place dans l'église et dans le monde du roi du peuple dans le gouvernement du sort de l'individu dans le group social de l'entrée dans l'église et de la condition de ceux qui lui restent étrangers la question reste la même comment le droit peut-il saisir l'infinie variété de l'histoire des hommes the present revolution in biological technology is leading lawyers to fundamentally reconsider the laws of human reproduction what is at stake is not only the transmission of life but also the transmission of a certain order of the things on which society is based this is the reason why the law has always sought to regulate the transmission of life covering themes from canon and medieval roman law to the 1804 code civil the work includes twenty three articles on the history of law about a number of modern day questions they deal with the close connections long maintained between marriage and procreation with natural and legal filiation especially regarding the very delicate problems of evidence with the institution of legitimation but also of the child as a person there is also an article on the important matter of the conceived child
